

DOG TROTTERS DAY CAMP & BOARDING INFORMATION & POLICY

At Dog Trotters we want your pet to feel at home.

We provide all day safe, supervised play, love, care and most importantly “peace of mind”.

So, sit back, relax and let your precious pooch get in all the belly rubs he/she can handle!

All dogs must be 12 weeks or older to start day camp.

All day camp dogs must wait 6 weeks after being spayed or neutered to start day camp to ensure proper healing.

Dog Trotters does not accept pregnant dogs, dogs with stitches or dogs recovering from surgery.

All owners must provide proof of:

1. Current rabies vaccination
2. Current DHLPP vaccination (distemper/parvo)
3. Current Bordatella vaccination (within the last 6 months)

All animals must be flea/tick free upon check-in. If fleas are found on your pet, we will immediately give him/her a flea bath at owner’s expense.

Food: Dog Trotters feeds pedigree foods or you may choose to send your own.

Medications: All medications must be in the original bottles. No injections. Dog Trotters will administer medications at no additional charge.

Behavior: Dog Trotters is an all day play kennel (unless you choose otherwise). Your dog will be interacting with other dogs of all ages, size and sex all day long. However, if boarding or in daycare your dog is unable to play because of but not limited to: aggression issues or injury, other accommodations will be available to your dog to ensure his/her entertainment, safety and wellbeing with no additional charge.

Owner is fully responsible for any harm to other dogs or Dog Trotters employees.

Belongings: Dog Trotters is not responsible for any personal items including:

Leashes, collars, toys, bedding or blankets. Send items at your own risk. We do not offer replacements, refunds or reimbursement.

Vet care: We use _____ as our vet hospital. In the event of an emergency and neither you or your emergency contact can be reached, your dog will be treated at _____. You agree to accept financial responsibility for any and all vet services.

Payment is expected when services are rendered.

We reserve the right to turn away any dog due to aggression.

Dog Trotters will not be liable for any health or behavioral problems that develop in your dog.

By signing this, you agree that you fully understand everything in Dog Trotters policy and your dog has no health problems, mental or physical. You agree that your dog is parasite free and are up to date on all shots including rabies, DHLPP and bordatella.

You also agree to accept all financial responsibility (including vet bills) when you pick up your dog.

We will do our best to make every dog comfortable, happy and feel right at home.
